

Voicing Innocence

Trauma, Memory, and Contemporary Opera
in the Work of Kaija Saariaho

TUESDAY | 7 APRIL 2026

WEDNESDAY | 8 APRIL 2026

William P. Kelly Skylight Room, Ninth Floor

William P. Kelly Skylight Room, Ninth Floor

8:30 AM Registration

Welcome & Introduction: Tina Frühauf (Director of the Brook Center), Jarmo Sareva (Consul General of Finland in New York), Joshua Brumberg (President at the CUNY Graduate Center)

Session 4 | Chair: Federico Favali (Conservatorio di Alessandria)
Philipp Lojak (Yale University), Timeless Voices: Folk Vocality and the Politics of Time in Kaija Saariaho's Innocence

9:30 AM Session 1 | Chair: Jonathan Gilmore (Baruch College and CUNY Graduate Center)

Liisamaija Hautsalo (Sibelius Academy, University of the Arts Helsinki), Returning to the Past: Archaic Vocal Traditions and Musico-Dramatic Meaning in Kaija Saariaho's Innocence

Paola Livorsi (Centre for Music and Technology, University of the Arts Helsinki), Relational Voices at the Threshold of Speech and Song

10:15 AM Olga Manulkina (Independent Scholar), The Da Vinci Code: Saariaho's Operatic Fresco

Meeri Pulakka (Sibelius Academy, University of the Arts Helsinki), In the Transitional Spaces of Saariaho's Vocal Writing: Experience-based Artistic Research on Singing Émilie

11:00 AM Coffee Break

Coffee Break

11:30 AM Session 2 | Chair: Nickolas Pappas (CUNY City College and Graduate Center)
Yayoi Uno Everett (CUNY Hunter College and the Graduate Center), Kaija Saariaho's Adriana Mater (2006): A Narrative of Trauma and Ambivalence

Vilma Jää in Conversation with Lindsey Eckenroth (RILM and the New School's Eugene Lang College of Liberal Arts)

12:15 PM Danielle Buonaiuto (CUNY Graduate Center), Staging Collective Trauma: Compassionate and Care-full Approaches to the Depiction of Gun Violence in Simon Stone's Production of Innocence

Sofi Oksanen in Conversation with Yayoi Uno Everett (CUNY Hunter College and the Graduate Center)

1:00 PM Lunch

Lunch

2:00 PM Session 3 | Chair: Peter Eckersall (CUNY Graduate Center)

Session 5 | Chair: Ralph Whyte (RILM and Columbia University)

Olga Heikkilä (Sibelius Academy, University of the Arts Helsinki), Innocence and Its Performers: Significant Expansion of Operatic Vocality and Prosodic Possibility

Federico Favali (Conservatorio di Alessandria), The Concept of Hidden Theatricality in the String Quartets by Kaija Saariaho

2:45 PM Naama Perel-Tzadok (University of Pittsburgh), Resonant Tongues: Exploring the Sound of Language in Kaija Saariaho's Opera Innocence

You-Kyung CHO (Tokyo University of the Arts), Memory as Reconstruction: Temporal Entanglement and Musical Mediums in the Operas of Zimmermann, Saariaho, and Pagh-Paan

3:30 PM Coffee Break

4:00 PM Alexi Barrière in Conversation with Frank Hentschker (Director of the Martin E. Segal Theatre Center, CUNY Graduate Center)

Jean-Baptiste Barrière in Conversation with G. Steven Everett (CUNY Graduate Center)

5:00 PM Reception (by invitation)

Elebash Recital Hall

6:30 PM Closing Concert | Saariaho with Electronics

Hosted in collaboration with the overdrive festival for experimental electronic music and multimedia art.

Program

Lonh (1996)
Fall (version for harpsichord, 1995)
Jardin secret I (1984)
Jardin secret II (1986)
Petals (1988)
Im Traume (1980)

Olga Heikkilä | soprano
Tuija Hakila | harpsichord, piano
Hannah Collins | violoncello
Joann Whang | violoncello